1208 West Mallon
Spokane, Washington 99201

Purpose

1. The Detention Alternatives Evening Reporting Program is an alternative to 24 hour secure detention for juvenile offenders who have violated probation conditions.
2. The goals of the program are to hold juvenile offenders accountable while increasing their skills to avoid further law or court order violations.

What to expect

The Evening Reporting Program is an interactive program. You will participate in all program activities, including possible role-playing, group discussions and a physical fitness component. The focus is on building skills which help prevent a re-offense and probation violations. We will help you identify your risk factors and develop a plan to reduce them. The program is held from 3:30-7:00 pm. You must attend each day of the program that you are assigned in order to successfully complete the program.

Topics may include

- Drug & Alcohol Awareness
- Job Skills, College prep
- Decision Making & Problem Solving
- Cultural and Gender Awareness
- Conflict Resolution/Anger Management
- Accountability and Victim Awareness
- Community Resource Connections
- Family Support Group

Course Agenda

- Group rules and expectations
- Homework time/tutoring offered
- Team building exercises
- Skill & Strength development activities
- Structured recreation time
- Mentor Role Model Connections
- Coping Skills & Stress Management
- Discovering Healthy Alternatives

Dinner is provided.

Remember, you have been given this opportunity because your Probation Officer and the Judge believe that you can learn from this experience. Incentive and rewards may be offered to youth and their parents to encourage attendance and participation. Your Probation Officer will be informed of your positive or inappropriate behavior. Failure to complete the program may result in secure detention time.
