

Descriptions for Spokane County Softball Divisions

B: All players in this division have played college or high school softball/baseball. This division is typically for competitive traveling teams; usually a league set for county tournaments only.

CC: Elite Division. All players in this division either have experience with high level varsity or college softball/baseball. Players can hit home runs on command and have the ability to do more than just the basics of softball/baseball. Players are heavily fundamental with great base running and situation acumen.

C: Highly Competitive. Prefer to compete at a high level but, not at the highest level. Typically players who played varsity softball/baseball in high school or college or have several years of experience playing recreational softball. Most players have the capability to hit home runs, have speed on the bases and out in the field. Errors are limited on defense, usually few overthrows or missed plays, such as a pop fly not being caught. Base runners are very aggressive and persistent on the bases. Players are fundamentally sound on both defense and offense.

DDD: Competitive/Middle division. Most popular competitive league. Players that have experience in at least softball/baseball at the high school level or experience in recreational softball. Knowledge of softball/baseball and want to compete at a higher level. Several players on the team that can hit home runs, have an aggressive defense but not all players have a high skill level. Base runners are aggressive.

DD: Semi-competitive division. Knowledge of softball/baseball and want to have fun. Have a few players that can hit home runs, rarely aggressive on the bases. Played at least some recreational softball/baseball in the past and are looking to play for the enjoyment of the game.

D: Recreational/beginner division. Players are still learning the game of softball or have little experience in softball/baseball, but play for the enjoyment of the game. Usually the best league for those teams that will be playing in their 1st season.
