

State v. Steven Burr:

Charge: Attempted first degree premeditated murder.

Facts: The victim and his wife were having dinner when they heard a voice through the screen door say: "Payback is a bitch." The defendant was previously married to the victim's wife. The gunman/defendant fired two bullets into the residence striking the victim in the chest. The victim lived but stills carries the bullet in his chest as doctors believed removal of the bullet would be life threatening. A jury convicted the defendant as charged and the court sentenced the defendant to 225 months in prison.
