- New Business

- Mike McLaughlin will help as much as he can as Secretary till November election of new term members.
- Expect resignation letters for Charles Lightwalker and Bill Kane after their submittals to County.

Discussion about getting a person from Governor’s office to attend meetings. Other people from state government have shown interest in attending meetings.

Discussion about having organizations appointed to committee and they could send who the wish to meeting.

Discussion about reducing the number of members needed to meet quorum.

Discussion about reviewing By-Laws and updating as needed.

- Project Manager's Report: Updates on other related committee works
Dave Reynolds gave update from last conference/symposium. 200 people registered. About 75 people were in attendance. Members of the ACAC and A4A gave presentations. Would like to schedule a debriefing to go over what when well and changes that could be done better next time.

Several members had met with Martha Raske on Wednesday May 22, 2019. It was discussed about the requirements under the RCW. These should be considered as the goals as the ACAC. Martha Raske will be working on a 5 year plan with these requirements as the guidelines and goals.

4. Public comment, questions; Others as time allows
A brief discussion about rainbows in crosswalks and that this would cause some visibility issues for some people.
