Use: Customer is taking two bathrooms and turning it into one full bathroom. There is a bunch of copper drains and water lines that need to be removed. The copper can stay on site so custom can scrap. We have access below the main copper drain to attach to and make plastic from there on. We want to leave most the copper water piping but any lines we are running or adapting to, we would like to make those lines mostly pex. There is no flooring down so no walls will be in place at the time but we have drawing for where the walls will be so they can frame around our pipes. Then we will come in a second visit to tie our vents in and to hang the valves. We would like to attach below the main stack for that bathroom and go to abs. Run new abs to a toilet, shower, tub/shower, and a dual vanity. Also run new pex lines to each fixture.
