

SPOKANE COUNTY SHERIFF OFFICE / SPOKANE VALLEY POLICE DEPARTMENT

WAIVER OF LIABILITY

The undersigned does hereby waive any and all causes of action against Spokane County, the City of the Spokane Valley, the State of Washington, its agents and employees, the Spokane County Sheriff Office, the City of Spokane Valley Police, its agents and employees, and the sureties and bondsman of the forenamed, which said causes of action and demands for, on or by reason of any damage, loss or injury, which may hereafter accrue as a result of the undersigned's voluntary association with the Spokane County Sheriffs Office, including the City of Spokane Valley Police.

Also, the Supreme Court of the United States has established that it is a Constitutional violation for any third party (observer/rider) to enter a residence without express permission of the tenant or property owner. Therefore, during your ride along, you are not to enter upon or into any person's residence unless given specific permission to do so by the homeowner or tenant, or are requested by a Deputy Sheriff to aide him on the execution of his Law Enforcement duties.

This waiver is acknowledged by the undersigned to be binding on his/her heirs, successors in interest, and assignees.
