

Sharing the Children Seminar

All parties in domestic cases which involve minor children (dissolution of marriage, legal separation, paternity actions, establishment of residential schedule based on Affidavit of Paternity, modifications of custody or parenting plan, relocations) are required to attend a parent education seminar within 60 days of service of the petition on the respondent; or a finding of paternity being entered (local Court Rule 94.03).

The seminar focuses on helping parents understand and address the needs of their children brought on by this legal action and disruption of the family.

The seminar is currently being offered by the following agencies and individuals:
